Dear members of the admission committee:

This is a reference letter to support Mohammed Alsharani's transfer into Harvard College. I work as the General Manager of Training and Development responsible for the talent development activities in Saudi Aramco. I came to know Mohammed through his work in helping Saudi Aramco attract and sponsor gifted Saudi students studying in reputable universities in North America.

As in the case of any company, attracting top talent can be a challenge. After contacting Mohammad concerning certain issues with attracting talented students, he offered to provide Saudi Aramco with a comprehensive report, including recommendations, to attract top talent from prestigious universities. In his work, he conducted surveys, made phone interviews, and benchmarked with other leading companies on the subject. His efforts have surely assisted Saudi Aramco in its endeavor to attract these talents.

I strongly endorse making Mohammed a member of your institution.

Sincerely,

N.K.
